

LOCAL IN BRIEF

Mahard & Son for good buggies. 4t
D. T. Calmes, of the county, was in town Saturday.

M. W. Hall was a visitor in the city Wednesday.

Joseph Hamill spent Tuesday in Kansas City.

W. C. Booth left Monday for his home in Quincy, Ill.

W. K. Mahard & Son for best buggies. 12-4t

H. D. Ament made a business trip to Kansas City Monday.

G. P. Haynie and R. C. Hanna were over from Miami Monday.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
Carry Largest Stock.

Miss Erman Brown, of Orearville, spent Tuesday in this city.

C. P. Snoddy and wife of the county were in Marshall Monday.

Marshall has a "Midway" at Wright's cigar factory. 1w

George Long and wife, of Slater, were guests of friends here Tuesday.

Will Montgomery and Orion Heskett of Blosser were in Marshall Monday.

Cheap buggies—W. K. Mahard & Son. 12-4t

Rev. C. E. Thomas left Tuesday for Mexico, to attend a meeting of synod.

Have you a "Pedigree?" If not, you can find one at Wright's cigar factory.

If you want a good "Pedigree" Wright's cigar factory will furnish it.

Misses Sallie and Dora Ervin spent Sunday with relatives in Mt. Leonard.

Miss Catherine Ervine was the guest Sunday of Mrs. W. V. Rogers at Slater.

J. W. Steele, of Higginsville, arrived Tuesday for a visit to friends here.

Josh Barbee is at his office again, after an illness of two weeks with mumps.

Cypress Finishing.
LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.

Sewell Burruss and sister, Miss Mary, of Miami, spent Sunday in Marshall.

Mrs. Maggie Bates and son, Martin, of Miami, were in the county seat Monday.

George R. Phillips returned Monday from a business trip to Henry county.

Frank P. Seabee, of Kansas City, was in our city Wednesday on legal business.

Judge B. J. Orear, of the county, was the guest of relatives in this city Wednesday.

Harry Kapp, of the Malta Bend Qui Vive, spent Monday in the capital of the county.

Miss Maude Lynch was the guest on Sunday of Miss Margaret Sanger, north of town.

For Rent—Gill's Book Store will rent you books for 3, 5, 10, 15, 20 and 25 cents per book. 9-4t

DR PRICE'S

cream

BAKING POWDER

Indispensable in making finest breads, biscuit and cakes. The greatest culinary help of modern times. Young housekeepers find the beginning of their success in cookery in its employment.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.
CHICAGO.

NOTE.—Imitation baking powders are lower in price, but they are mostly made from alum and are injurious to health when taken in food.

The "Pedigree" of Wright's cigar factory, is one of the best. 1w

Dr. and Mrs. McGuire, of Arrow Rock, were guests of Wm. Putsch and family Tuesday.

Miss Frances Welch, of Mount Leonard, visited her sister, Mrs. Joseph Hamill, this week.

Clinton Barnhill and sister, Miss Eva, spent Sunday with Miss Carrie Rhoades at Slater.

Mrs. W. B. Nock came up Thursday afternoon for a week's visit to I. O. Striker and family.

Capt. Joe Wilson and wife of Miami, spent Monday in Marshall shopping and visiting friends.

W. K. Mahard & Son for buggies. 4t

Miss Lula Coke, of Slater, and Mrs. John Moss, of Nelson, were shopping in our city Wednesday.

T. B. Carter and family, the guests of R. T. Brightwell, returned to their home in Slater Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Lawless, of the county, was in the city Tuesday and will read the REPUBLICAN for a year.

Meet me at Wright's cigar factory and we will visit the "Midway."

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
Operate their Own Manufactory.

Miss Laura McCulloch, of Higginsville, is making a visit to Miss Iva Hoffman on West Morgan street.

Mrs. E. L. Brown and son, Edmund Jr., returned Monday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Denny at Armstrong.

Get your buggy of Mahard & Son. 4t

Capt. A. A. Lesueur and wife, of Kansas City, are visiting W. C. Green and family this week in West Marshall.

Henry Bryant and Misses Emily Black and Esma Reynolds spent Sunday with P. T. Reynolds and wife at Slater.

Grant Fulkerson and wife, of Elmwood, were guests of the latter's brother, Ed Gross, at Ming's Hotel Tuesday.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
Stock Carried in Large Sheds.

Lester Watts of the county, M. Peterman of Miami and T. E. Crutcher of Napton, were all visitors in the capital Tuesday.

Pat Loftus and A. B. Hoy took advantage of the beautiful weather Sunday and drove to Arrow Rock where they spent the day.

F. H. Gilliam, of Gilliam, visited his daughters, Mesdames W. E. Parrish, P. H. Franklin, Lee Hughes and George Young this week.

W. E. Hyatt, representing the National Business College of Kansas city, was in Marshall this week in the interest of that institution.

Lime, Plaster, Hair, etc.,
LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.

Rev. C. C. James, pastor of the M. E. church at Malta Bend, with his wife, were guests Sunday of Rev. Mr. Lehr and family of this city.

Miss Estelle Dawes came up from Slater Monday to attend the dance Monday evening and to be present at the club reception on Wednesday, with Miss Larue Campbell. She was the guest of Miss Emily Black while here.

W. S. Newell, who left Marshall about ten days ago for Canon City, Colorado, where his daughter, Mrs. Wallace Strother, has spent some months in search of health, and is very much improved. Mr. Newell will return to Marshall this week. Mr. and Mrs. Strother are now at Las Cruces, New Mexico, where her physicians think she had better remain for a while before returning to Missouri.

Robert Ward has resigned his position as reporter for the Index and Miss Deane Robertson has been employed to supply the vacancy.

Mrs. J. B. Moritz and children returned to their home in Malta Bend Monday, after a visit to Mrs. Alida Saunders and family of this city.

Charles Bemis and wife, of Slater, were guests of Jet Rose and family Tuesday night and attended the banquet given by the Knights of Pythias.

Miss Mary Wood, whose school at Sweet Springs closed Friday, visited Marshall relatives on Saturday and returned to her home in Miami on Sunday.

H. B. Hawkins and Harry Francisco left Monday for Paris, Monroe county to look at some fine saddle and driving horses with a view of purchasing.

J. W. Wheeler and wife, passed through Marshall Sunday enroute to their home in Arrow Rock from Miami, where they had visited the former's parents.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
Buy Cheap for their Many Customers.

Horace Hawkins made a business trip to Miami Monday. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Annie, who spent the day with the Misses Miller.

Rev. Frank Burton, of Oak Grove, passed through the city Monday enroute to New Orleans, where he will attend the Southern Methodist Missionary conference.

R. C. Horne, of Jefferson City, came up Friday and remained until Monday with his family. He with his wife attended the Brunsough-Murrell reception Friday evening.

Boyd Rhoades returned Sunday from Kansas City, where he has been studying law. He will remain at home this summer, where he will continue to devote a part of his time to his studies.

LA CROSSE LUMBER CO.
Make Low Prices.

Mrs. George Dyer, the guest of Mrs. R. B. Eubank Sunday, left in the afternoon for her home in Kansas City. She was accompanied by Misses Katherine Eubank and Annie Fishback, who will visit in that city for a week.

Mrs. William Gaitskill and son, Mitchell, returned to their home in St. Louis Sunday, after a visit to relatives in Saline. They were accompanied by the former's sister, Miss Julia Piper, of near Hardeman, who will make a visit in St. Louis.

E. W. Daniels, of this city, left on Thursday for St. Louis to attend a banquet given Prof. Wm. P. Stuart, of New York, at the St. Nicholas Hotel to-day (Friday). The banquet is given by the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York and will be a grand affair.

The following gentlemen were guests of honor at the club reception given by Miss Larue Campbell on Wednesday afternoon: Wm. Walker, Wm. Rea, Gus Mayer, Charles Chaplin, Harry Wilson, Devere Jackson, R. Mauden, Warren Colvert and M. P. Lyons.